AGC Installs 2012 Officers and Board Members

The Associated General Contractors of America, San Diego Chapter, Inc. (AGC) installed its 2012 officers and board members at the Association's Annual Installation Dinner Tuesday evening at the Hilton San Diego Bayfront. Over 475 guests attended.

Dave Carlin, President of Soltek Pacific was installed as the 67th President in the Chapter's 85 year history, and he succeeds 2011 President, Mark Filanc of J.R. Filanc Construction Company, Inc. Soltek Pacific, established in 1974, is a general building construction firm providing expertise over a wide spectrum of projects, including the reconstruction of educational facilities, historic structures, industrial complexes, specialized military structures, and correctional facilities.

As a member of AGC's Board of Directors, Mr. Carlin has served as Senior Vice President; Vice President; Secretary/Treasurer; Chair of AGC's Government Relations and Political Action Committees, Builders' Exchange Committee, Membership Committee; Co-Chair of the Build and Serve Committee; and Chair of the March 3, 2012 San Diego State University Construction Engineering and Management Gala.

The other AGC officers installed were: Jeff Turner of Flatiron as Senior Vice President; Brian Jordan of Helix Electric, Inc. as Vice President; and Walt Fegley of Reno Contracting, Inc. as Secretary/Treasurer.

The remaining Board Members for 2012 are: Greg Becker of Cement Cutting, Inc.; Thomas L. Brown of Sierra Pacific West, Inc.; Mike Carcioppolo of Hawthorne CAT; Jon Cloud of J. Cloud, Inc., John H. Daley, Jr. of Daley Corporation; Kevin Elliott of Old Roll, Inc., Mark Filanc of J.R. Filanc Construction Company, Inc., Mark Finch of Johnson, Finch & McClure Construction, Inc.; Randy Finch of Marks, Golia & Finch, LLP; Christina Gomez Holben of St. Thomas Enterprises; Bill Haithcock of Casper Company; Diane Keltner of Synergy Electric, Inc., Tim Penick of T.B. Penick & Sons, Inc.; Eric Stenman of Balfour Beatty Construction; Doug Urbick of Hazard Construction Company; Jon Wald of Sundt Construction, Inc; and Wes Wise of TC Construction Company, Inc.

The following AGC members have been appointed to the 2012 Executive Committee: Tom Anderson of Bergelectric Corporation, Diane Koester-Dion of I.E. Pacific, and Ken Walsh, Professor of the J.R. Filanc Construction Engineering and Management Program at San Diego State University. They will serve as Ex-Officio Members of the Board of Directors.

The evening's festivities included recognition of the 85 graduates of AGC's Apprenticeship Program in 2011; special presentation of AGC's SIR Award to John Nelson of Flatiron; graduation of three protégé firms in the AGC/City of San Diego Mentor-Protégé Program; and presentations of AGC annual member awards and construction safety excellence awards (list attached).

AGC is the nation's largest and oldest construction trade association. The association is dedicated to improving the construction industry by employing the finest skills, promoting the latest technology, and advocating building the best quality projects for public and private owners. The San Diego Chapter has over 1,000 member companies. ###
